Humidifiers / nightlights

Babymoov, solutions designed for a peaceful life.

Did you know? The right level of humidity in the home has an impact on air quality and therefore on your baby's health.

According to the experts, that level is between 40% and 50%. This helps limit any respiratory problems in babies.

Parents can rely on our humidifiers to reduce infections or irritations related to lack of humidity.

And let's not forget our nightlights, which accompany baby to the land of nod, with their soft light and relaxing sounds.
